DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

   I. Claims 1-24, drawn to a system for soft tissue reconstructive surgery, classified in class 606, subclass 139.

   II. Claims 25-36, drawn to a method for soft tissue reconstruction, classified in class 128, subclass 898.

   III. Claims 37-38, drawn to a soft tissue fastener, classified in class 606, subclass 213.

   IV. Claim 39, drawn to a method of surgical paravaginal repair, classified in class 128, subclass 834.

   V. Claim 40, drawn to a method for diagnosing a pelvic floor defect, classified in class 128, subclass 830.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination requires means for detaching which is not required of the combination. The subcombination has separate utility such as a fastener that does not require an applicator.

3. Inventions IV and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus can be used for other applications than paravaginal repair, such as the bladder, rectum, etc.

4. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the method can be used with another apparatus and vice versa. The method requires specifics such as stabilizing, driving and juxtaposition, which are not requirements of the apparatus.

5. Inventions I and V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention the system for soft tissue reconstruction can be used for other applications than a pelvic floor and has separate utility such as for use in a bladder, rectum, etc. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group(s) (II, III, IV, and/or V), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Further, if applicant selects any of Groups I-V, further election is required where applicable. For example, if applicant elects group V, a single template species must be elected.

8. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Fixation species

Species A: Figure 3

Species B: Figures 4A-4C

Species C: Figures 5A-5B

Species D: Figures 6A-6B

Species E: Figures 7A-7B

Species F: Figures 8A-8C

Species G: Figures 9A-9C

Species H: Figures 10A-10C

Species I: Figures 11A-11B

Species J: Figures 13A-13G

Species K: Figures 14A-14D

Species L: Figures 15A-15D

Species M: Figures 16A-16B

Species N: Figures 17A-17B

Species O: Figures 18A-18B

Species P: Figures 19A-19B

Species Q: Figures 20A-20D

Species R: Figures 21A-21I

Species S: Figures 22A-22C

Template species

Species 1: Figures 24A-24B

Species 2: Figures 25A-25E

Applicator species

Species A1: Figure 26

Species A2: Figures 27A-27C.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kathryn Odland whose telephone number is (703) 306-3454. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (7:30-5:00) First Friday Off.
